1. The normal term of service for draftees in the Rumanian army is two years. However, draftees assigned to a border guard unit serve three years. Three years is also the term of service for Rumanian naval draftees, except naval infantry units (roughly equivalent to U.S. Marines), who serve two years. The Air Force draftee term is also two years.
2. Regular (career) officers are appointed for life, while Reserve Officers are originally called up for two years, and then take refresher courses at regular intervals.
